

“faith is all that dreamers need to see into the future.”

-The Gift of Dreams

The key to making dreams come true is making them real. This means putting your dreams down on paper, sharing them with others and actually planning the steps you can take to move closer to making your dreams come true. Use this Share A Dream Card to tell a friend – whether that’s a spouse, a sibling or a co-worker – about your dream so they can help support your quest...and enjoy being a part of your accomplishment.
